

Please consider limiting the number of stations one company may own within any market. I would like to see more competition among radio stations and their parent companies.